Privacy Notice

Thank you for choosing to instruct me in your case. I will need to collect and hold your personal information in order to represent you. I will take all reasonable steps to protect your personal information. I will do all that I reasonably can to ensure I do not infringe your rights or undermine your trust. This Privacy Notice describes the information I collect about you, how it is used and shared, and your rights regarding it.

Data Controller

I am registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) as a Data Controller for the personal data that I hold and process as a barrister. My registered address is Temple Garden Chambers, 1 Harcourt Buildings, Temple, London, EC4Y 9DA.

Data Collection

All of the information that I hold about you is provided to me or gathered solely in the course of and for the purposes of your case, proceedings or any related matter.

Lawful Basis For Processing Your Information

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) requires all organisations that process personal data to have a Lawful Basis for doing so. The Lawful Bases identified in the GDPR are:

- Consent of the data subject
- Performance of a contract with the data subject or to take steps to enter into a contract
- Compliance with a legal obligation
- To protect the vital interests of a data subject or another person
- Performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.
- The legitimate interests of ourselves, or a third party, except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject.

Examples Of Legitimate Interests

- Where the data subject is a client or in the service of the controller;
- Transmission within a group of undertakings for internal administrative purposes;
- Processing necessary to ensure network and information security, including preventing unauthorised access;
- Processing for direct marketing purposes, or to prevent fraud; and
- Reporting possible criminal acts or threats to public security.

My Lawful Basis is Legitimate Interest namely the provision of professional services to you and the proper exercise of my professional obligations and responsibilities. My Lawful Bases may also include: consent and/or performance of a contract with you or steps to enter a contract with you and/or compliance with a legal obligation. In so far as I process sensitive personal data that is necessary in relation to legal proceedings and/or obtaining legal advice and/or otherwise for establishing, exercising or defending legal rights and/or for administering justice.

I Use Your Information To

- Provide legal advice and representation;
- The efficient and professional management of my practice as a barrister;
- To investigate and address any concerns you may have;
- Assist in training pupils and mini-pupils.

I do not use automated decision-making in the processing of your personal data.

I collect and process both personal data and special categories of personal data as defined in the GDPR. This includes:

Manage consent

- Name;
- Email;
- Phone number;
- Address;
- Payment or bank details;
- Date of birth;
- Location details;
- Device IP address;
- Financial information;
- Medical Records;
- Employment Records;
- Criminal Records.

I May Share Your Personal Data With:

- My Instructing solicitors;
- My pupil or mini pupil, under my training;
- Opposing counsel and solicitors for the purposes of your case;
- A Court or other Tribunal;
- My Chambers management and staff who provide administrative services;
- My regulator or legal advisors in the event of a dispute or other legal matter;
- Other third parties where necessary to meet legal obligations;
- Any other party where I ask you and you consent to the sharing.

Transfers To Third Countries & International Organisations

I do not transfer any personal data to third countries or international organisations.

Retention

I retain your personal data while you remain a client and for as long as is necessary for me to meet my legal and professional obligations. My Retention and Disposal Policy (copy available on request) details how long I hold data for and how I dispose of it when it no longer needs to be held.

Your Rights

The General Data Protection Regulation gives you specific rights around your personal data. For example, you have to be informed about the information I hold and what I use it for, you can ask for a copy of the personal information I hold about you, you can ask me to correct any inaccuracies with the personal data I hold, you can ask me to stop sending you direct mail, or emails, or in some circumstances ask me to stop processing your details.

Finally, if I do something irregular or improper with your personal data you can seek compensation for any distress you are caused or loss you have incurred. You can find out more information from the ICO's website and this is the organisation that you can complain to if you are unhappy with how I dealt with you.

Accessing & Correcting Your Information

You may request access to, correction of, or a copy of your information by contacting me in writing at my registered address.

Marketing Opt-Outs

You may opt out of receiving emails and other messages from my Chambers by following the instructions in those messages.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your browser or device by websites, apps, online media, and advertisements. The Chambers website use cookies to:

- Expertise
- Significant Cases
- News & Resources

Dato Shyamala Alagendra is a distinguished international lawyer who is called to the Malaysian Bar in April 1998 and admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor in Malaysia.

She practises from her legal firm in Kuala Lumpur, as well as before all international criminal courts. She has prosecuted in leading cases before the Special Panel for Serious Crimes in East Timor (SPSC), before the Special Court for Sierra Leone (SCSL) and at the International Criminal Court (ICC). At the SCLS she was in the team that prosecuted former Liberian President Charles G. Taylors and at the ICC she was in the team that indicted former President Omar Bashir of Sudan and senior members of his government. She has acted as Defence Counsel before the ICC and the STL. She has represented high profile defendants including the William Ruto (Deputy President of Kenya), Saif Al Islam Gadafi of Libya and others. She also served as an adviser to the defence team representing Fatmir Limaj before the EULEX Courts in Pristina related to war crimes and corruption charges. Shyamala was served as the Assistant Director of Prosecutions of the Republic of Fiji where she led numerous prosecutions of crimes against children and secured the first life sentence for child rape. She has served as the Gender and Child Rights Advisor to the United Nations Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar (IIMM) and is presently the Gender Advisor to the OHCHR Sri Lanka accountability project. Shyamala has represented victims of human rights violations in Kenya and Sierra Leone and victims of sexual abuse by clergy in Sierra Leone.

Served as an elected member of the Executive Committee and Victims Committee of the International Criminal Court Bar Association (ICCBA).

In April 2014, Shyamala was awarded the title of Dato by the Sultan of Perak (both the former Lord and King of Malaysia) for services to International law.

Temple Garden Chambers does not accept instructions on behalf of Associate Tenants.
